

The College of Education

140 Seventh Ave. S., Coquina Hall 201

St. Petersburg, FL 33701

www.stpt.usf.edu/coe

About USF St. Petersburg, Fall 2007

- First regional campus in the State University System to achieve separate accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools
- Student-centered with emphasis on citizen scholars and community engagement
- Small college atmosphere with a national reputation
- 3,606 students from Pinellas and surrounding counties
- 26 undergraduate degrees; 12 graduate degrees; 154 faculty; 814 degrees awarded in 2006-07
- The only public university in Pinellas County, an area with 1 million residents

About the College of Education

- Preparing a new generation of educators to excel
- Dedicated to making a difference with every child
- Candidate for national accreditation by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE)
- 746 students enrolled in 2006-07 - degrees awarded: 91 undergraduate; 94 graduate
- Over $3 million annually in volunteer support for the local schools

Degree Programs Offered

Undergraduate Programs Leading To Teaching Certification

- Exceptional Student Education/English for Speakers of Other Languages
- General Elementary Education/ English for Speakers of Other Languages

Graduate Programs Leading To Teaching Certification

- Elementary Education/ English for Speakers of Other Languages
- Exceptional Student Education/ English for Speakers of Other Languages
- Reading Education (K-12)

Graduate Programs Leading To Principal Certification

- Educational Leadership Development

Graduate Programs for Professional Educators

- Elementary Education: Math /Science Emphasis
- Elementary Education: Literacy and Curriculum
- English Education

About the Faculty

- Nationally and internationally recognized scholars and researchers
- Award winning teachers
- Dedicated to P-16 student learning
- Committed to school-university partnerships
- 96 % with doctoral degrees

The emblem for the College of Education at USF St. Petersburg is unique and represents the three strands of its Conceptual Framework: Knowledgeable Professionalism, Collaborative Leadership, and Reflective Teaching. This framework is used to guide all of its programs and provides the knowledge bases that anchor the faculty's teaching, research and service.

